3. Those intending to bid have to furnish their correct address and deposit a sum of Rs. 20 (Rupees twenty only) for entitling themselves to participate in the auction, with the officer in charge of auctioning, half an hour before the notified time.
4. The deposits of unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them after the auction is over.
5. The successful bidder/s will be required to pay the full amount of bid immediately and remove the material within 3 days from the date of auction, at his/their own cost.
6. The employees of the Factory may participate through their representatives subject to the notified rules regarding deposit and payment of value, since they cannot be permitted by the Management to take part in the auction direct, as they would be dislocating their work.
7. If any unsuccessful bidder fails to make payment of the value of the material in question, the deposit made by him is liable to be forfeited to the Factory and it will be re-auctioned by the Factory at the risk of bidder and he/she will not be entitled to any benefit accruing therefrom but losses if any will be liable for recovery.
